

3e. Historian

The Plymouth Church Historian serves as a special assistant to the Church Council, appointed by the Council to collect, organize, and preserve church records and archives. The Historian may engage friends and members of Plymouth in projects at their discretion. The Historian will report to the Council when requested. The term of the position is two years, renewable as mutually desired by the incumbent and the Council.