THE JOURNEY FOR A JUST PEACE IN ISRAEL & PALESTINE

Combatants for Peace (CfP) was founded by Israeli and Palestinian former combatants who laid down their weapons to choose one another and seek a peaceful, equitable future side by side.

Mai Shahin, West Bank; Elie Avidor, Israel

Mai Shahin is a therapist and peace activist based in Ezariya, navigating the challenges of Area C near the separation wall in East Jerusalem. She says, “The power of nonviolence lies in its ability to bring people together, to build bridges rather than walls, and to envision a future where all people, regardless of their background, can live in peace and dignity.”

Elie Avidor is an Israeli engineer and former combatant who grew up in Haifa and fought during the Yom Kippur War. He says, “Until Palestinians are free, Israelis can never be free. Our freedom and futures are intertwined.”
